

Gautam is the Director, Key Accounts at LatentView. He is responsible for the success of strategic client engagements. He has over 20 years of experience in technology and global IT services management.

Prior to joining LatentView Gautam worked with Infosys, where he played a similar role, working with key BFSI and retail customers.

Outside of work, Gautam is interested in holistic health education and awareness building. He was involved in Aum Arogya project which hosts a series of holistic health and wellness educational events. He also enjoys Carnatic music and Buddhist philosophy.

He holds an Engineering degree from IIT Bombay and an MBA from IIM, Calcutta.