

LatentView Analytics Limited

The Policy for Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment at Workplace – Version 13

INTRODUCTION

LatentView Analytics Limited (“Company”) is committed to providing equal opportunity to its Employees (as defined hereunder) and strives at creating a healthy working environment that enables Employees to work without fear of prejudice, gender bias and Sexual Harassment (as defined hereunder).

The Company has put in place, a policy for Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment at Workplace (“Policy”) to address any cases of Sexual Harassment, in the interest of ensuring gender equality and the right to work with dignity, which are both recognized as basic human rights. Sexual harassment is a grave offence and is, therefore, punishable. The Company has ensured that the Policy is extended to all the Employees of the Company by making it gender neutral.

The Policy is made and amended from time to time by Company under the overall ambit and in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 (“Act”).

Considering the Covid-19 pandemic situation, the Company has, in discussions with the board of directors and the shareholders of the Company, decided to introduce a different model for employing the Employees. The Company has introduced a work from home (“WFH”) model for Employees to continue being employed with the Company. Apart from this, the Company has still retained the work from office model of employment.

Irrespective of whether an Employee opts for the WFH model or the work from office model, this Policy shall equally and fairly apply to all Employees and any Employee facing Sexual Harassment shall make a complaint and shall be governed in the manner provided under this policy.

In recognition of the same, this Policy shall be interpreted as applicable to relevant Employees.

I. OBJECTIVE OF THE POLICY:

The objective of this Policy is aimed at educating Employees of their rights against any form of unwelcome sexual behaviour and to provide firm yardsticks that shall not be crossed while in employment with the Company which results in promotion of the well-being, and provide a clean and safe work environment to Employees against any misbehaviour and nurturing a workplace environment free of Sexual Harassment.

Focus would be to ensure that all allegations of Sexual Harassment are investigated and dealt with effectively, appropriately as well as promptly.

IV. INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE (ICC)

- a) ICC is being constituted to ensure an effective mechanism of redressal of any grievance against Sexual Harassment that may be faced by an Employee during the course of their employment with the Company.
- b) The ICC shall consist of the following Members to be nominated by the Company, namely
 - i. A Presiding Officer who shall be a woman employed at a senior level at workplace from amongst the Employees;
 - ii. not less than two Members from amongst Employees preferably committed to the cause of women or who have had experience in social work or have legal knowledge; and
 - iii. one Member from amongst non-governmental organizations or associations committed to the cause of women or a person familiar with the issues relating to Sexual Harassment.

However, at least one-half of the total Members so nominated shall be women.

- c) The details of the members are as set out in Annexure A herein below.
- d) Every member of the ICC shall hold office for a period not exceeding three (3) years, from the date of their nomination as may be specified by the Company. Further, in the event of any change in the composition of the ICC, the Company shall notify, on the notice board of the Company, the amended list of members of ICC.

V. DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS OR PRESIDING OFFICER OF ICC

- a) If the Presiding Officer or any Member of the ICC:
- i. contravenes the provisions of section 16 (Prohibition of publication or making known contents of complaint and inquiry proceedings) of the Act or Clause XI (Confidentiality) of this Policy; or
 - ii. has been convicted for an offence or an inquiry into an offence under any law for the time being in force is pending against him; or
 - iii. he has been found guilty in any disciplinary proceedings or a disciplinary proceeding is pending against him; or
 - iv. has so abused his position as to render his continuance in office prejudicial to the public interest, such Presiding Officer or Member, as the case may be shall be removed from the ICC and the vacancy so created or any casual vacancy shall be filled by fresh nomination in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

VI. PROCEDURE FOR COMPLAINT

- a) Complainant can file a written complaint, in the form as provided in Annexure B herein below, (6 copies) with the ICC within three (3) months of the last occurrence of the alleged incident of Sexual Harassment.
- b) However, at the sole discretion of the ICC, the time limit can be extended for a further period of 3 months if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the woman from filing a complaint within the said period.
- c) Any person can make a complaint on behalf of the Aggrieved Employee in the instance that the Aggrieved Employee is unable to make such a complaint.

VII. INQUIRY PROCEEDINGS & OUTCOME OF THE COMPLAINT

- a) Conciliation Proceedings: The ICC may, before initiating an enquiry and at the request of the Complainant, take steps to settle the matter through conciliation, provided that no monetary settlement shall be made as a basis of conciliation. In the case of a domestic worker, if prima facie case exist, the complaint shall be forwarded to the police, within a period of seven (7) days for registering the case under section 509 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, and any other provisions of the said code where applicable. Where a settlement has been arrived during conciliation, the ICC shall record the settlement and forward the same to the Company requiring them to take actions as specified in the record. Further, it is to be noted that if a settlement via conciliation is arrived at, no further investigation process will be conducted by the ICC. However, if the terms arrived during conciliation have not been complied with by the Respondent, the ICC shall proceed to make an enquiry into the complaint. A copy of the settlement as recorded during conciliation shall be provided to both the parties.
- b) Subject to sub-clause (a) above, the ICC shall, per the powers vested through the Act, where the Respondent is an Employee, proceed to make inquiry into the complaint and evaluate if there is a prima facie case or not. However, keeping in mind the sensitivity of the case, the ICC shall not subject the Complainant to an enquiry more than once, unless the complexity of the complaint requires so.

- c) Where both the parties are employees, the parties shall, during the course of inquiry, be given an opportunity of being heard and a copy of the findings shall be made available to both the parties enabling them to make representation against the findings before the ICC.
- d) Considering the WFH model, the ICC shall hold the inquiries online, while seeking permission from all parties involved to record the call. A copy of the call is then emailed to be Complainant and Respondent, and acknowledgement shall be sought from them.
- e) The ICC shall, after completing the inquiry, submit its recommendations to the Company in respect of the penalty to be imposed and other further actions to be taken (refer to Annexure C for the ICC Report Format). The inquiry report, which also specifies the recommendations, shall be provided within ten (10) days from completion of the inquiry by the ICC. These actions could include but not limited to the following:
 - i. A letter of warning that will be placed in the personal file of the accused.
 - ii. Immediate transfer or suspension without pay or both. However, considering the WFH scenario, they could be made to work on different teams.
 - iii. Cash Fine.
 - iv. Stoppage of increment with or without cumulative effect.
 - v. Reduction in rank.
 - vi. Termination/dismissal from the services of the Company.
 - vii. Filing a Complaint before the relevant police station/Court.
 - viii. Any other action that the ICC may deem commensurate to the misconduct.
- f) The Company shall act upon the recommendations provided under the inquiry report within sixty (60) days of its receipt by the Company.
- g) Interim Relief: During the pendency of the inquiry, on a written request made by the Complainant, the ICC may recommend to the Company to:
 - i. Transfer the Complainant or the respondent to any other workplace; or
 - ii. Grant leave to the Complainant up to a period of three (3) months shall not be inclusive of the leave such Complainant may be otherwise entitled to per law; or
 - iii. Grant such other relief to the Complainant as may be prescribed.
- h) If ICC is of the opinion that the complaint has been falsely filed, or if any document or evidence relevant with the complaint has been fabricated, the person falsifying shall be subject to firm disciplinary action, which may include dismissal from the services of the Company.

VIII. DETERMINATION OF COMPENSATION

For the purpose of determining the sums to be paid to the Aggrieved Employee, the IC, shall have regard to:

- i. The mental trauma, pain, suffering and emotional distress caused to the Aggrieved Employee;
- ii. the loss in the career opportunity due to the incident of Sexual Harassment;
- iii. medical expenses incurred by the victim for physical or psychiatric treatment;
- iv. the income and financial status of the Respondent;
- v. feasibility of such payment in lump sum or in instalments.

IX. APPEAL
